

CONSTITUTION DAY

VENUE: ICT MUMBAI

DATE: NOV 29TH

Report: Constitution Day Celebration at Institute of Chemical Technology, Mumbai

The Constitution Day celebration at the Institute of Chemical Technology, Mumbai, was a momentous occasion marked by reverence and reflection on the foundational principles of our nation. The event commenced with the esteemed presence of dignitaries including President of the Technological Association, Vice Chancellor Prof. AB Pandit, Prof. RR Deshmukh, and Vice President of the Technological Association, Prof. Ashok Atalaya.

The proceedings were gracefully hosted by the Public Relations Secretary, Miss Prerana Awchare, who ensured the seamless flow of the event. The atmosphere was charged with anticipation as the audience eagerly awaited the enlightening speeches and presentations.

The event was enriched by the heartfelt speeches delivered by fellow students, Mr. Digvijay Patil and Ms. Nivi Parekh, who eloquently shared their perspectives on the significance of the Constitution in shaping the fabric of our democracy.

Adding depth to the occasion, Prof. AB Pandit offered insightful remarks, emphasizing the importance of upholding the values enshrined in the Constitution. His words resonated with the audience, inspiring a renewed commitment to the principles of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.

A patriotic moment of the event was the reading of the Preamble by Prof. Ashok Athyala, which served as a solemn reminder of the ideals that guide our nation. As the words of the Preamble echoed through the halls, it served as a powerful reaffirmation of our collective aspirations for a just and inclusive society.

The Constitution Day celebration culminated with a sense of unity and pride as the audience joined together in singing the national anthem. This symbolic gesture encapsulated the spirit of patriotism and solidarity that pervaded the event, leaving a lasting impression on all in attendance.

The Constitution Day celebration at the Institute of Chemical Technology, Mumbai, served as a reminder of the enduring relevance of our Constitution and the values it upholds. It was a testament to the institute's commitment to nurturing informed citizens who are actively engaged in the democratic process.

As we commemorate Constitution Day, let us reaffirm our dedication to the ideals of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity that form the bedrock of our nation.

